ORDER

JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

On November 6, 2020, the Court ordered that “[w]ithin thirty days” — that is, by December 7, 2020 — “each counsel shall file a letter affirming that he or she has advised his or her client of the” trial date and related matters. See ECF No. 269. On December 8, 2020, the Court noted that counsel for nine Defendants had failed to comply with the November 6th Order and directed them to do so by December 22, 2020, “or face possible sanctions for their failure to comply with the Court’s Order.” ECF No. 302. Several of these counsel have since complied or received an extension of the deadline. But counsel for four Defendants — namely, Jacobb Padin, Abbas Ozkurt, Tyerance Mickey, and Jerry Rojas — have neither complied nor received an extension. No later than January 7, 2021, counsel for these Defendants shall either file the letter as ordered or show cause why sanctions should not be imposed for their failure to comply with the Court’s Orders.

SO ORDERED.
